

ISLAND LOCALS.

ABOUT TOWN.

The Duke of Waikapa was in town last week.

In January Coop's circus will arrive here and exhibit for a short season.

Fifty-three Celestials arrived by the Alameda Sunday morning from San Francisco.

The streets, owing to the recent heavy rains during the nights, are in a filthy condition.

There are quite a number of second-hand uniforms in the market which can be had cheap.

The People's Ice and Refrigerator Co., paid its regular monthly dividend on the 27th ult.

Water rates for the current term, (July to Dec. 31) are payable on or before November 15th.

Mr. L. Cabot, civil engineer, arrived here by the Alameda, and is the guest of Hon. S. G. Wilder.

The steamship Zealandia is advertised to leave San Francisco November 10th, at 2 p. m. for Honolulu.

Sunday evening was Hallow E'en, a day which is honored in the observance by many people of European origin.

A large invoice of fire-works has been received by the Alameda for Nov. 16. Some of the pieces are said to be very fine.

The Kinau returned on the 30th from a Hilo trip with twenty saloon and 100 deck passengers, also 125 packages of sugar.

The Steamer Wilmington was only twelve days in making the passage from Honolulu to San Francisco, arriving Oct. 14th.

The P. C. Advertiser has evidently kicked over the traces, and has a good deal to say lately against the new appointments.

By the Mariposa, a theatrical troupe under the management of Mr. Joe Grammer, may be looked for, and will give a series of entertainments.

The weather during the week past has been changeable—extremely warm times. The nights and mornings, however, are cool and pleasant.

A. H. Morris, champion billiard player of California, and R. J. Agington, fancy roller skater, were through passengers by the Alameda for the Colonies.

Miss Swanzy, sister of Mr. F. M. Swanzy, of the house of T. H. Davies & Co., was a passenger by the Alameda. Miss Swanzy intends to reside here for a time.

Honolulu is promised the electric light during the birthday festivities, an apparatus and electrician having arrived by the Alameda to make and furnish the light.

Advices from Hilo of Oct. 27th state that Kilauea gave indications of renewed activity the Monday previous. A lively flow had commenced in Halemauana, on the east side.

Lot Kaulakou has been gazetted as Marshal the second time without resigning the first appointment. Lot seems to have a "fat racket" and is disposed to work it for all it is worth.

The Hon. Juana Kane seems to be the only person duly qualified to take the position of Registrar of Conveyances, made vacant by the death of Thomas Brown. Kane is well qualified to draw the salary.

Advices by the Alameda announce the death of Mrs. S. Magnin, of Alameda, Cal., formerly for many years a resident of this city, and where she had many friends who will regret to hear of her decease.

By the Alameda it is learned that freights for the islands were brisk, the steamer having refused to receive any more. There were two vessels already loaded and ready for sea when the Alameda sailed.

In the report of the fire on board the steamer W. G. Hall, in speaking of the Fire Department, the name of M. D. Mousarrat as 1st assistant, was inadvertently inserted instead of Julius Asch, the regular incumbent.

The following new appointments of Agents to take acknowledgments to labor contract, viz: S. K. Mahoe for the district of Waialua, Oahu; G. O. Kamaoaka, North Kohala, Hawaii, and F. S. Maule, Waikuku, Maui.

The new racing boat expected by the Alameda, for the Honolulu Club, did not arrive. The cause assigned was that the building in which the boat was being built was consumed by fire and the boat shared the same fate.

Yesterday was All Saint's Day, and was duly celebrated by religious ceremonies appropriate to the occasion in the Roman Catholic Cathedral.

To day is All Soul's Day, and will also be duly observed in the same Church.

Read the new advertisement of the Temple of Fashion in this week's issue. They offer a large variety of goods, which must be disposed of before December 31st to make room for fresh importations now on the way from Eastern and European markets.

On Saturday the Supreme Court adjourned sine die. Among the last cases called was that of I. B. Peterson, charged with embezzlement from the Post Office; the Crown declining to prosecute, the defendant was discharged. This may be said to be letting him down easy.

Ground has been broken by Mr. George Lucas, for a two-story brick building, on the east side of Nuuanu Street, on the lot formerly occupied by Hon. A. S. Cleghorn. The structure will have a frontage of about sixty feet, by a depth of about fifty, and will be fitted up as stores for the retail trade.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz: Pacific Sugar Mill—F. A. Schaefer, President; J. H. Paty, Vice President; Secretary, H. Renjes; J. H. Paty, Auditor. Honolulu Sugar Co.—F. A. Schaefer, President; J. H. Paty, Treasurer; Secretary, H. Renjes; M. McInerney, Auditor.

The Hawaiian band having returned from their holiday, favored the public with a concert last evening at Emma Square. Mr. Berger presented an unusually attractive programme, which was thoroughly appreciated by the attendance at the Square. Berger is sure to let the lovers of good music know when he is at home.

Why does not the Road Supervisor, or some proper officer of the Government, see to it that the new side walks now being built in the burnt districts, are made as near as may be to an even grade? As it is there are all sorts of jumping off places? It is lucky on a dark night if one does not snap his head off on one of these traps.

Mr. M. N. Sanders, of the White House, Nuuanu Avenue, at the last moment almost, was called upon to assume the position of second officer of the Alameda, owing to the serious illness of the incumbent, who remains here until the return of the steamer from the Colonies. Mr. Sanders was for a number of years an officer in the employ of the Pacific Mail Co. and is a sailor of experience.

The copper case which was placed under the corner stone of the Sailors' Home building over 37 years ago, was recovered on Saturday by tearing down a portion of the South corner of the foundation wall. The box appears to be in a good state of preservation after being hidden from the light of day for these years. The box is in charge of F. A. Schaefer, Esq., and will be opened before the Trustees.

Mr. Macfarlane has, in his store on Kaahumanu street, a fine year, of the Bartlett variety, which was raised on his ranch at Ahimannu, Koolau. He has some young trees growing there, and they promise to yield well. The specimen referred to is one of three that have matured on a tree which is not over two years old, is of a rich light russet color, and looks as if it might prove to be a choice eating fruit.

The following bids have been made for the erection of M. McInerney's new brick block, on the corner of Fort and Merchant streets. It will have a frontage on the two sides of nearly 200 feet.

R. Listman, $45,000; Geo. Lucas, $44,782; Harrison Bros., $40,468; E. B. Thomas, $40,000; McKenzie, $39,024; Bertelman, $38,420; Geo. W. Lincoln, $35,500; Kavaugh, $35,593.

By the Alameda, among the large number of passengers, there were many residents both old and young who have been enjoying a holiday abroad, viz: J. B. Atherton, Mrs. Geo. Williams, James Gay, Miss P. Fyfe, Mrs. W. D. Alexander and two daughters, J. Dodd and wife, Miss G. Leonard, Miss J. Judd, C. H. Bishop, Mrs. W. Y. Horner and three children, C. J. Fisher, R. R. Hind and wife, Miss Lamb, C. W. Ashford, Mrs. F. W. Schmidt, J. Bowler and wife—to all of whom the GAZETTE extends a hearty welcome.

A telegraphic message from Dr. Henri McGrew, states that Mr. John Tarn died at Paris, on the 11th of October, aged 40 years. The deceased was well known here and was married to Miss Mary Bennett, niece of Mrs. McGrew.

Kalohia, an aged Chiefess of Kana'i, who recently died in Honolulu, was buried at Kawaiaho Church on Sunday. Her remains were followed to their last resting place by an unusually large concourse of friends—said to be the most numerous attended funeral witnessed in this city for many a day.

The King's Birthday Committee have ordered six large wagons, each twenty-seven feet long by eight feet wide, to be constructed by the Hawaiian Carriage Co., for the Coronation festivities. These wagons are intended to carry barge, canoes, etc., in the historical procession. One of the wagons, it is said, will be devoted to carrying a huge skull—just what this is intended to represent is a secret, known only to the Board of Genealogy, perhaps. The world moves and so do the people, but in this case the movement seems to be a retrograde one.

Among the many novelties to be introduced in the coming Royal Birthday festivities, Nov. 10th, it is reported that one is to be a company of natives dressed in the primitive male and an equal number of wahines whose sole costume will be the pa-u of ancient times. This will be something new to Honolulu in these latter days of civilization. It is not stated whether each will have the full-dress postage stamp over the eye. Can this report be true? In what direction is the vessel of state drifting, when such heathenish follies are resurrected from the tomb of oblivion, to be flaunted in the face of morality and common decency?

Mr. M. P. Robinson is having a light draft scow built of twenty tons measurement for the banana trade between Ewa and this city, by Mr. J. A. Dower, ship carpenter. The vessel will be 60 feet long by 16 feet wide, with a depth of two feet. She will be fitted for steam power similar to what is known as a stern wheeler on the upper Sacramento river, and will carry a large load on a very light draft of water. It is Mr. Robinson's intention to run this steamer inside the reef to Pearl River, and it is expected that she will deliver the bananas in much better condition at the wharf than by the small schooners as heretofore.

Honors to H. W. Schmidt Esq.

H. W. Schmidt, Esq., Consul for Sweden and Norway, was received in honor, at the Palace of Drottningholm, by King Oscar, on the 27th of September, and dined with the King, the Queen, Prince Oscar and Prince Eugen. In the evening he was entertained at Hasselbach by Prince Oscar and the officers of the Vanadis.
